Elvis Depressedly

No more sad songs, no pain, no separation
Strung out on memories rest beneath the leaves
Someday never came so I keep waiting
I will go to sleep still believing

No more sad songs, nothing anticipated
Days come and go without saying goodbye
Someday never came so I keep waiting
I will go to sleep still believing

No more sad songs, I owe the world nothing
I've been strung along too long to really care
Someday never came so I keep waiting
I will go to sleep still believing

No more sad songs, I will serve no purpose
I love everyone that I have ever known
Someday never came so I keep waiting
I will go to sleep still believing
