

Beautiful Human

Elyar Fox

Hey, whatever you think
I know that your heart is as big as the world
But there's pollution in my soul
My soul, hey
Now I imagine that your type has been out of fashion for some time
It's no illusion, oh no
Oh no

Before your wings get caught up in my trap
And your heart falls right into my lap
How could I do that?
No, no, no, no, no

You are a beautiful human
Who I would only ruin
What am, what am I doing?
'Cos you are a beautiful human
You are a beautiful human
Who I would only ruin
What am, what am I doing?
'Cos you are a beautiful human

I don't think I've tasted humble pie
Innocence is yours, it sure ain't mine
And I'd hate for you to lose it, yeah that's right
Yeah that's right

Before your wings get caught up in my trap
And your heart falls right into my lap
How could I do that?
No, no, no, no, no

You are a beautiful human
Who I would only ruin
What am, what am I doing?
'Cos you are a beautiful human
You are a beautiful human
Who I would only ruin
What am, what am I doing?
'Cos you are a beautiful human
