It's uphill both ways to those who don't believe the earth is flat
They call me otherwise but in my head, I know I'm Elliott Platt
(I know I'm Elliott Platt)
They're lighting up the sky
They're colorful and they're coming hard and fast
(That shit makes my heart burn baby)
Can't hear a thing, I think I'm gonna have to call you fuckers back
Come on fuck me on my back, come and kill me with an axe
Leave me bleeding on the floor, why can't all of us relax?
Everything was fine before, now you never text me back
I'm just someone you ignore, now my heart says "make a track"
I think that'll break you more

Now you're gonna have to face the facts (Ayy!), cut your losses
You're no good at your job, bitch
Okay (Okay!), you got this
Floor could use a sweep, and the dishes need washing
The dishes need washing (The dishes need washing)
The dishes need washing
The dishes need washing (The dishes need washing)
Floor could use a sweep, and the dishes need washing

She's not like you, she's cool
You're the type to
Go out dressed up like a cartoon
Only common ground you got is when you smoke doob
She's not like you, she's cool
You're the type to
Go out dressed up like a cartoon
Only common ground you got is when you drink booze

It's overwhelming but the only time I'm really feeling free
Is when there's people everywhere I look bumping into me
I lock myself inside my room and crush up pills between my teeth
Try not to stress about the horses being ground up for their meat
(At the end it's such a treat)
Now I'm lying on the floor
Gotta get back on my feet
Life is such a fucking chore
Now I wish I was asleep
On my own I get so bored
Now my heart says "listen here", it's just something I'll ignore
I think that'll break you more

Now you're gonna have to face the facts (Ayy!), cut your losses
You're no good at your job, bitch
Okay (Okay!), You got this
Floor could use a sweep, and the dishes need washing

The dishes need washing (The dishes need washing)
The dishes need washing (The dishes need washing)
The dishes need washing (The dishes need washing)
Floor could use a sweep, but the dishes need washing
