

Curse Of God (Pt. 1)

Elysia

Grim heart
No love, no life, no light
Dismal days fade
Angel take flight

Through the hurt she takes, and her heartbreaks
She must realize,
She is the power of a thousand earthquakes

Awake
Extinguish the torch of two thousand years oppression
Which burns with her depression.
Cast its remains to the void
Her chains are destroyed
Devour the wretched in their own scorn
At last, love is reborn
Strolling alone at night in fear,
Like her freedom disappeared.
Devour the swine in their own scorn
At last love is reborn

I will always be there to comfort you
To feel you, to understand you, and love you
At last love is reborn
