

Chance

Elysian Fields

Can I call a truce with you baby
Accidents are happening
Impossibly obtuse with your maybes
C meets y then it begins
We want to take that ride
But don't know what we're doing
And if we get inside
Could it be our ruin?
And it caught you off guard
Like a falling star
Tried raising the bar
But it's much too hard
When you're feeling so small
Like a tiny stain
And you're still in the dark
'cause it's not the not the same
Chance, it's all. chance, it's all
Across the great divide
Jockeying for position
If you sell, I'll buy
Mergers and acquisitions
And it caught you off guard
Like a falling star
Tried playing the odds
But ain't got the cards
When you're feeling so small
Like a tiny stain
And you're still in the dark
'cause it's not the not the same
Chance, it's all. chance, it's all. chance
Missed the boarding call
By a minute I wasn't there when it went down
Another day to capsized the limits
Find some love and make the rounds
We want to find the truth
But can we even take it?
Once we've lost our youth
How are we to make it?
And it caught you off guard
Like a falling star
Tried raising the bar
But it's much too hard
When you're feeling so small
Like a tiny stain
And you're still in the dark
Chance, it's all. chance, it's all
Chance, it's all. chance
