

You're just the proof
All boys aren't created equal
I'll build a church
Around your holy steeple
I give myself to a higher power
It's nature, opening this flower
It's nature, opening this flower
Sleepwalking clouds
Fade in and out of being
Recall a sun
Of coral endless dreaming
I give myself to a higher power
It's nature, opening this flower
It's nature, opening this flower
Far away, a morning star
Undresses light and caresses
Castaway breezes

Pledge themselves to dark tresses
A cape of snow
On branches pale and leaning
Dance to their death
Encrypting deeper meanings
Forces collide
Become a supernova
Like birds, we glide
All emerald seas of clover
I give myself to a higher power
It's nature, opening this flower
It's nature, opening this flower
It's nature, opening this, opening this
Nature, opening this flower
It's nature, opening this flower
Nature
