

Villain on the Run

Elysian Fields

Moving like a villain on the run This black cloud Escaping this town
Soon you'll find me in the sun Sweet kisses placed On your sweet face
And I can guarantee that I can guarantee that you'll join me
Oh won't you join me It's so exciting We hit the sweet spot
They say there are no accidents And now it's meant for all to see
I love you and you love me Shooting like an arrow Through the sun
This white light Burning this town Good to be a villain on the run Low riders breaking new ground And I can guarantee that I can guarantee that you'll join me Oh won't you join me It's so exciting, we're disembodied
And all the words are so opaque Around the lake on hands and knees
I love you and you love me Six of wands In position for victory
Crown of thorns Love will come back to me Seven-fold Just read the tea leaves
There's the key I lost There's a horseshoe toss I'm feeling lucky
Are you feeling lucky? There's a money clip, Wad of bills in it I'm feeling lucky Are you feeling lucky? There's the holy mountain There's a roman fountain I'm feeling lucky Are you feeling lucky?
There's a roulette wheel Watch me cop a feel I'm feeling lucky
Are you feeling lucky? You're gonna put me Through my paces Feel my bambI heart And how quickly it races I'm putting all of my chips on you And you know this baby horse She's gonna come through Like the tarahumara You're gonna go far And further than far
And further than far Oh my, a life of crime Because you're mine
I'm gonna sign on the dotted line
