

Haven't you heard
That everything dies
However beautiful
Could be absurd
But into your eyes
I see our rise and fall

Purest of roses grow
There comes a time
Their petals are dying
Under the sun they'll glow
There comes a time
Their petals are dying

Hey yeah
Petals are dying
Hey yeah
Can't live forever

Brightest of colors fade
There comes a time
They're no longer shining
Butterflies live for a day
And there comes a time
Their petals are dying

Hey yeah
Petals are dying
Hey yeah
Can't live forever

Enchained by our mortality
Too weak to reach eternity

Hey, hey yeah
Petals are dying
Hey yeah
Can't live forever

Hey, hey yeah
(You should know that no one lives forever)
(Thus our time is nothing but right here and now)
(Flowers wither in the stormy weather)
Petals are dying
(You should know that no one lives forever)
(Thus our time is nothing but right here and now)
(Flowers wither in the stormy weather)
Hey yeah
Can't live forever
