

Someplace Better

Elyson

Deep inside, day by day
There's no wind to blow your sins away
After all could you be wrong?
When your heart is broken walkin' alone
Walkin' alone

You're sayin', I'm sayin'
Memories won't last for ever
You're strayin', I'm strayin'
Won't you take me someplace better?

It's all there, everywhere
In your time of need there's nothing to bear
There's a light that you can find
When you're gone see all got left behind
Left behind

You're sayin', I'm sayin'
Memories won't last for ever
You're strayin', I'm strayin'
Won't you take me someplace better?

You're sayin', I'm sayin'
Agony is not your prayer
You're strayin', I'm strayin'
Won't you take me someplace better?

Another day
Just goes on by
Don't drift away
