Trasparent

Elysion

Here I'm sitting
One step too far
For you I'm reaching, my falling star

So out of words
So full of wounds
I wander here, among my ruins

Is this what we fear, what we have become?
Is this what we are?

Come take me back, carry me home
Unbreak my heart, conscience is gone
Come end the rain, for all I know
Among the teardrops I can't reach
Can't see your transparent love

Here I'm sitting
One step too far
For you I'm reaching, my falling star
