

The Hotline

Emanuel

Breathing hard. Static on the line. I'll never get enough.
Emptiness of telephonic sex.
I imagine you undressing and I can barely stand.

Turn down the lights (Turn down the lights)
Your mouth turns me to rust
So let's unwind (So let's unwind)
You can't escape the hotline

Take your picture. Bite you on the neck. It's all I wanna do.
Secretly romancing the recluse.
There is no touch. I am dead inside. This is all that's left.

Where are you now?
I need your voice.
Cause I've been wrapped up tight and spending all my nights...
There's not enough.

You can't stop now I'm almost...
You can't stop now I'm almost there!
