

Come back to all the times you caught me resort to the bottle
Face inside your hands (keep up, keep up)
Now all the people that you know are screaming inside your head
Now all the people that you know are turning against you

(If I ever see you come here again)

I'm cutting you out from under my skin
Give me the strength to never let you get back in
Kept losing my consciousness just to burn these bridges down
(Now I'm praying)
I'm praying my feel won't fail me now

Took all these colors from me
Conformed to be (you can never let this slide)
Frame all your photos in unconsciousness
And go back to sleep

I can't be sure, that we'll live through tomorrow
(If we live through tomorrow) someone fucking save us

I'm cutting you out from under my skin
Give me the strength to never let you get back in
Kept losing my consciousness just to burn these bridges down
(Now I'm praying)
I'm praying my feel won't fail me now

I'm cutting you out from under my skin
Give me the strength to never let you get back in
Kept losing my consciousness just to burn these bridges down
(Now I'm praying)
I'm praying my feel won't fail me now
