

Porcelain

Emarosa

In the same way I can imagine you a mother
I can imagine you are wild raising our beauty queen
In the same way I can imagine you my wife
I can imagine you are wild, the happiest part of me

But I think I know you, I know you
You can break
I think I know you, I know you
I watch and I wait

You're porcelain
You're porcelain
I just want to hold you
You're porcelain

The greatest gift I am feeling is in loving myself without fear of you walking away, all this is enough

But I know you, I know you
You can break
I think I know you, I know you
I watch and I wait

You're porcelain
You're porcelain
I just want to hold you
You're porcelain

It's hard to face a life alone, with you I never will
I believe in you beautiful, a million times around
I used to say it would be okay, and it will
You better love me 'til the day you're gone XO
Until the day I'm gone

You're porcelain
You're porcelain
You're porcelain
You're porcelain

I think I know you, I know you
You can break, you're porcelain
