

Wait, Stay

Emarosa

How dare you stay, I'm not for you
Turn away my love, I'm not for you

Wait, stay
Time keeps slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good
And wait, just stay
I'll keep slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good

I'll take, you take
I'm not a saint
Turn away from me
Even with you, I feel alone

Wait, stay
Time keeps slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good
And wait, just stay
I'll keep slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good

(Good enough, you've hurt enough, you've hurt enough)
Come stay with me right here
(Good enough, you've hurt enough, you've hurt enough)
But do you even care?
(Good enough, you've hurt enough, you've hurt enough)
The past, the memories are all I have (Good enough, you've hurt enough, you've)
You saw the best in me

Wait, stay
Time keeps slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good
And wait, just stay
I'll keep slipping away
But I remember what it's like to be good

Now wait, stay (Hurt enough, hurt enough)
Time keeps slipping away
But I remember (Hurt enough, hurt enough)
What it's like to be good
And wait, just stay (Hurt enough, hurt enough)
I'll keep slipping away
But I remember, remember (Hurt enough, hurt enough)
Remember what it's like to be good

(Hurt enough, hurt enough)
(You've hurt enough, hurt enough)
(Hurt enough, hurt enough)
(You've hurt enough, hurt enough)
