

Avalon

Ember Falls

Waking up in a pool of your own piss
Jesus snores and the devil makes breakfast

Smell the burning stench of this cesspit
Taste the wine of guilt on your charred lips
Thought you found your way out but this ain't it
Serving time in hell for your bullshit

The looks in silence
The violence
The poison's coursing dread
The end is endless
I see it
Neon burning red

Where is Avalon
Where is peace when all I see is danger
Where is Avalon
Where are you when all I see is failure

Smell the burning stench of your own shit
Taste the bile of guilt on your charred lips
Thought you found your way out but this ain't it

Here's to your hypocrisy
Here's to the myriad lies you chose to believe
Ladies and gentlemen
Here's Johnny!

Where is Avalon
Where is peace when all I see is danger
Where is Avalon
Where are you when all I see is failure

Where is Avalon
Oh I plead that angels take me
"Fuck your plea, fall back to earth
Pay the price of your rebirth"

Where lies Avalon
Neon light mirage
Unforgiving Star

Where is Avalon
Drown me in your neon lights

Where is Avalon
Where is peace when all I see is danger
Where is Avalon
Where are you when all I see is failure
