

You spin around me like a child
And sing your flat praise
Piling all your trauma to the statue that you raise
Avert your eyes from false gods and prophets of prey
Whatever your savior be
It isn't me

Run away, run away until morning
Get away into the night
(The hour is late for a bloodless way out)
Find a way out of the shackles of
The poisoned web I've woven
(I am the venom in your head)

The wounds you cover up so well still quietly bleed
Leading you with open arms for predators to feed
Weak enough to follow anyone who's strong
Just frail enough just alone enough
Just dead enough to suffer
Just to belong

Run away, run away until morning
Get away into the night
(The hour is late for a bloodless way out)
Find a way out of the shackles of
The poisoned web I've woven

Oh, I know I am, I'm the venom running in your veins
Oh, I know I am, I'm the venom running in your head
I am the venom in your head

C... O... E...
Indulgent isolation (C)
Improve and adapt my aberration (O)
Suck it up, drink it up, take it all down (E)
Scorched earth soul burial ground
