Oh I think Ive been Shanghaied, ya she got the swoop
Nah it wasn't AI it was something true
You went from the rebound to an ally-oop
Saw you in the bayside in the 562
Now I get the de ja staring at the view
Thinking of the late nights pourin' from the goose
I been out in NoHo stitching up the wounds
Think ill set the sails wide, sail into the view, sail into the new
She's about yay high a baddie but she cute
Curvy with the waist tight what'chyoo tryin' to do to me
I tried to keep a great vibe even with your crew
Come on let me know soon
Hit me with the hit me with the queue
Every time I look up at the full moon wonder if you're looking at it too
Like you said It's probably best for us both so I'm a do me you do yo u
Yeah I'm a do me you do you, I'm a do me you do you

I'll stay high, lay low take my antidotes
Fade by to black peace I'm going ghost
Say bye so long thanks now adios
Thanks now adios
Thanks now adios

You don't care at all you don't know what it does to me

Not too long ago you were given all your love to me
Why you wanna f*ck with me say you're still in love with me
Then you flip a switch and all of a sudden had enough of me
I wish you could love me unconditionally through good and bad and ugl y too bad you'll never trust me
Yeah you've been seeming sus b, say I'm trying to rush things
How dare you talk about patience
You barely waited one week
Words won't explain all the pain when you told me it was true
I really hope you're happy with yourself yeah I'm sure that dude is p retty happy too
Like you said It's probably best for us both so I'm a do me you do yo u
Yeah I'm a do me you do you, I'm a do me you do you

I'll stay high Lay low take my antidotes
Fade by to black peace I'm going ghost
Say bye so long thanks now adios
Fade by to ash up in heavy smoke
Say bye so long
Thanks now adios
Thanks now adios
Thanks now adios
