

So Proud

Emblem3

Find me tripping with the bass low and the 808 so loud
Told you I'll be grateful when I see the show sold out
Tripping in the waves, hanging ten with the toes out
Find me on my way up, momma would be so proud

Those words they say press on the bruises
I stay feng shui, call me Confucius
I take mushrooms, see through illusions
I catch these waves, forever cruising
Saw you standing outside of the Rox, Rox, Rox
Changing up your flight so you could stay another night
You know this LA movie never, ever stop, stop, stops
Too young to let the credits roll, won't lose it, no, I came to get it all

Feel the pride without the fall
Put platinum plaques on my wall
Get there if I have to crawl

Find me tripping with the bass low and the 808 so loud
Told you I'll be grateful when I see the show sold out
Tripping in the waves, hanging ten with the toes out
Find me on my way up, momma would be so proud

Those lips that face I can't erase
Ooh, in my mind it won't go away, no they won't go away
So hot it burns, that checkered skirt
We make our way through the crowd and hook up in the hallway
Those wings they clip, the dreams they quit
This life, it ain't for the weak, that's why I'm on my winning streak
You can call it luck or call it fate
Oh, I raise my cup up cuz I came here to celebrate

Oh, got no plans to let it go
I pick up the dice and I roll
So far beyond your control

Came to get it all
Feel the pride without the fall
Put platinum plaques on my wall
Get there if I have to crawl

Find me tripping with the bass low and the 808 so loud
Told you I'll be grateful when I see the show sold out
Tripping in the waves, hanging ten with the toes out
Find me on my way up, momma would be so proud

Oh, so proud
Find me tripping
So proud, oh 808
Told you I'll be, see the show
Tripping in the, hanging ten
So proud
