

Walking Dead

Emblem3

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon watch it all unfold

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon

No, I can't see a thing with a blind third eye
Can't differentiate all the truth from the lies
No, I can't see straight with a cup of fluoride
In the centre of the brain got a couch to fly

Damn I miss the days with the breeze in the hair
With the feet in the lake no fears no cares
No window what you want, no no no no
Gotta hang tight we could weather this storm

Soaked in gasoline
The young and wreck can dream
Don't light the matches
Won't get it back

Washed in broth again
Oh, will they ever stand
I've raised the flags
Take a bath

Generation walking dead
Crucifixion in my head
So far down this rabbit hole
Mind fiction under control

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon watch it all unfold

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon

Does anyone else feel like it's '84
Red flags and a face you'd rather ignore
If you know if it's wrong deep down whatchu waiting for Blue pill on a dome why don't you pop a couple more

Until you all bail, bail, bail, bail
With a finger up said no ain't no way
The world is a stage
Feeling like Truman
Slowly dissolving with the digital human

Information overdose could shake out of this massive hypnosis
Trapped in psychosis
The battlefield is in the mind of slowly

Is the price you'll see then, the price is freedom

Inching closer to the edge
Message sent but left unread
Further down this rabbit hole
Guess we'll see how far it goes

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon watch it all unfold

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon, guess we'll find out soon
Cuz we'll find out soon, guess we'll find out soon
If we'll find out soon watch it unfold

Where will it go?
Where will it go?
Cuz we'll find out soon, guess we'll find out soon
