I won't hide behind my fucking words or my failures I don't want you to fucking pray for me because I've been here a thousand times before I never know what the fuck is in store And I don't want you to fucking pray for me

I wont hide behind my fucking words

Some believe that everything in life comes for free

I will work until I bleed because anything doesn't come for free

I've been here a thousand times

I never know what the fuck is in store

I don't want you to fucking pray for me

And your days your fucking days won't come

When everything's the same
You say that things will change
Things won't change I will never hide behind my words
Things won't change and I will never turn my back on my friends
Things won't change
