

Fight Yer Corner

Embrace

I'll fight yer corner just to save you from yourself and all yo u say
Before you burn everything down
Act like a lunatic, you'll never get away with it
You better learn before it's too late

That feelings just pour away
And nothing you want will stay
As soon as you feel too safe
It's plain that it's time for a change

I'm your basic working man, I've made whatever luck I've had
You better learn before it's too late

That feelings just pour away
And nothing you want will stay
As soon as you feel too safe
You know that it's time to change
As feelings just pour away
And nothing you want will stay
As soon as you feel too safe
It's plain that it's time for a change
