

Giving Forgiving And Giving In

Embrace

She said I've changed my mind again
You've been spending all my life
Like I don't know what it's for
But now I know the score
And I've changed what I want to be
I'm not here to wait no more
'Cause I've realized it's wrong
For you to take this long

And now, I'm on my way
And I say I'm giving, forgiving, and giving in
When all I wanna do is back down, and turn around
And you tell me there's no way that I can't win
'Cause I've been in love before
And now I know the score
And life is gonna change

She said I've changed my mind again
You've been spending all my life
Like I don't know what it's for
But now I know the score
And I've changed what I want to be
I'm not here to wait no more
'Cause I've realized it's wrong
For you to take this long

And now, I'm on my way
I say I'm giving, forgiving, and giving in
When all I wanna do is back down, and turn around
And you tell me there's no way that I can't win
'Cause I've been in love before
But now I know the score
I'm giving, forgiving, and giving in
When all I wanna do is back down, and turn around
And you tell me there's no way that I can't win
So I've been in love before
And now I know the score
My life is gonna change
