

I Ache

Embrace

I ache for the things you said
Everyone you make so alone
And if you ever try to touch me, I'll go

I ache for the things you said
And a fool, I want so bad
And if you ever try to touch me, I'll act

I ache for the things you said
And I fell in love so bad
And if you ever try to touch me, I'll act

I ache for the things you said
And I know I want so bad
And if you ever try to touch me, I'll act
