

The Scarecrow

Embryo

He can see the lies
Deep into your beliefs
He knows your mind
And all the fears within

You can't avoid the control
Of your guardian scarecrow
You can't escape, he lies (on you)
From the day of your birth
He lies in wait to celebrate
The failure of your life
He laughs and smiles while
You shed tears and desperately cry

You can feel him next
To you in disgrace
You don't understand
Why he's always so close (to you)

You can't avoid the control
Of your guardian scarecrow
You can't escape, he lies (on you)
From the day of your birth
He lies in wait to celebrate
The failure of your life
He laughs and smiles while
You shed tears and desperately cry

You're falling down
And searching for an
Helping hand

You're screaming loud
To exorcize the fear
To die alone

He's watching you
With his scary eyes

You lie paralyzed
The life is leaving you
Now you can see his smile
Forged to heal the joy

You can't avoid the control
Of your guardian scarecrow
You can't escape, he lies (on you)
From the day of your birth
He lies in wait to celebrate
The failure of your life
He laughs and smiles while
You shed tears and cry
