

Cynical

Emei

Sleeping really well without anyone else
I've been making good decisions
Cooked the perfect egg, I opened up my shell
I've been on a new religion
Things are in their place, all kept in a row
Soon as they feel safe, I get bored

Why do I have to be so cynical?
Can't get me off my feet, that's typical
Why do I feel at peace when it's difficult?
Why do I have to be so
Cynical?
Cynical?

(Pressure is really high)

Series of events
Unfortunate, and then suddenly my life's in ruins
My smile never ends when my heart beats out my chest
And I question what the hell I'm doin'

Why do I have to be so cynical?
Can't get me off my feet, that's typical
Why do I feel at peace when it's difficult?
Why do I have to be so
Cynical?

Overthinking, overdoing, over it all
I'm unhappy ever after, and destined for disaster
Overthinking, overdoing, over it all
I'm unhappy ever after, and destined for disaster
Cynical?
