

Distracted

Emei

I've been so distracted
By the way he looked at me
One look, I can't help it
I gotta take my lead
What if I walked over
And said "hey, come with me?"
What if he gave me a number
And said "why don't you call me?"

Mesmerized, falling faster
Waiting for his move

I've got a good feeling
That we could be something
I've got a good feeling
But am I thinking to far ahead?
I've got a good feeling
That he'll change everything
I've got a good feeling
Should I just leave it all
Unsaid

We walked out the front door
Into a different scene
Ballroom floor, vintage clothes
Take my waist, dance with me
What if he leaned over
And said "you're all I need?"
What if I fell harder
Into this one-step dream?

I've got a good feeling
That we could be something
I've got a good feeling
But am I thinking to far ahead?
I've got a good feeling
That he'll change everything
I've got a good feeling
Should I just leave it all
Unsaid

(I know it sounds silly, dear)
Lukewarm dreams, Sunday dreams
Spend my morning in empty scenes
Black and white, old movies
Don't trust it, it's all a tease
Don't trust it, it's all a tease
Don't trust it, it's all a tease
But what if
You're all I need?

I've got a good feeling
That we could be something
I've got a good feeling
But am I thinking to far ahead?
I've got a good feeling
That he'll change everything

I've got a good feeling
Maybe I'll just go on ahead
(You're all I need)
(All I need, all I need)
