

Extraordinary Being

Emeli Sandé

Hey, yeah

You are what God imagined
You are a true perfection
Baby, you're made of stars
Don't let nobody tell you different
You are a lot of soul
Mixed with a lot of magic
Look how the sky turns gold
Every time you're dancing

You deserve all the love
Why don't you let it in?
Don't punish who you are
For who once you have been
You've got a heart of fire
It's gonna take you higher
Just let it flow, look at you glow, you gotta know

That you're an extraordinary being
Yes, you're an extraordinary being

See, your anatomy
Is made up of those before you
Gold is your history
You're standing upon their shoulders
See, you're a China
Getting to hide the cowards
Look how you're flying now
Check out your super powers

You deserve peace of mind
You deserve all the laughter
You are one of a kind
You deserve happy ever after
Oh, how the tides are changing
Feel how your heart is blazing
You gotta breathe, you gotta see, you gotta believe

That you're an extraordinary being
Yes, you're an extraordinary being, that's right
Yes, you're an extraordinary being
Oh, you're an extraordinary being

It's not your fault that you're magic
Baby, you're pure fantastic
Endless love like the ocean
Sing your song and be certain

If the world kicks you to zero
Spread your wings like an eagle
Raise your hand to the sun
And know that you are someone

Yes, you're an extraordinary being
(You are, you are)
Yes, you're an extraordinary being, that's right

Oh, you're an extraordinary being
(Hit me with the duel-up)
Extraordinary being

You are, you are, you are
You are, you are, you are, you are
You are, you are (Extraordinary)
You are, you are, you are
You are, you are (Extraordinary)
You are, you are, you are
You are, you are (Extraordinary)
You are, you are, you are
(Extraordinary)
(Extraordinary)

You are (Extraordinary)
No matter what you do
You are (Extraordinary)
No matter what they say
You are (Extraordinary)
No matter what they say
(Extraordinary)
