

Human

Emeli Sandé

We all love, we all pray
We've all made some mistakes
Win or losing, we all human
We all go through things

We all dream, we all cry
We've all felt pain at some point in our lives
Oh, keep on moving, yeah, we all human
We all go through things, oh yeah

See, no matter what colour of your skin
It feels just the same when the knife goes in
And no matter who gonna win or lose
We all gonna bleed the same shade of rouge
We'd feel much better if we told the truth
We're so good together but we mad confused
So human

Rich or poor, young or old
We all out here, we tryna save our souls
Yeah, we all learnin', yeah, we all human
We all go through things, yeah yeah

Oh my goodness, where's the goodness?
Where's the music? Where's the colours?
We keep losing, 'cause this ain't human
We goin' through things, yeah

See, no matter what colour of your skin
It feels just the same when the knife goes in
And no matter who gonna win or lose
We all gonna bleed the same shade of rouge
We'd feel much better if we told the truth
We're so good together but we mad confused
So human

At the end of the day we all on the run
So don't bite the bullet, baby, fight the gun
'Cause who knows really what's gon' happen next?
We all out here tryna do our best
We all got a heart, baby, more or less
We all got a first and a final breath
So human

We all go through things
We all go through things
We all go through things
Yeah, we all go through things

So human
So human
So human
We all go through things
