

Intermission

Emeli Sandé

Sometimes you've gotta close your mouth
To let the words speak clearly
Sometimes you have to close your eyes
To let the sun come shining
Sometimes you have to learn to leave
To make sure love continues
Sometimes we're all gonna need
An intermission, yeah
An intermission, yeah
An intermission, yeah

Sometimes you've gotta get on your knees
To keep your spirit standing
Sometimes you've gotta let it bleed
And let go of the bandage
Inhale, exhale, release
And let yourself receive forgiveness
Sometimes we're all gonna need
An intermission, yeah
An intermission, yeah
An intermission, yeah
