Pluto

Emeli Sandé

Baby, you've been patient, try to explain this:
My heart's been trapped too many times by Venus.
Neptune, hurt me bad but no where bad as Jupiter, go figure.
Baby please don't wait for me to fall

But babe you keep on asking, "What happened?"
I gave too many of my tears to Saturn, it's tragic.
The final blow, it had to come from Mercury, end of me
Baby there's no way I'm gonna fall,
Cause I left my heart on Pluto, Pluto, Pluto

I left my heart on Pluto, Pluto, Pluto
I left my heart on Pluto, Pluto, Pluto
I left my heart on Pluto, Pluto, Pluto
I left my heart on Pluto...

You keep on insisting, you're different.
You say you're from another solar system.
Listen, before you buy your house and sell your spaceship, yeah
There's something you should know

I traveled in a rocket, I dropped it,
Saved you from some other form of damage, abandoned.
I see you're a hopeful kind of planet,
But baby, I just think there's something you should know
