Same Old Feeling

Emeli Sandé

Well, I kicked ya, then I pushed ya
And I kept you far away
'Cause I need ya and I love ya
But it's hard for me to say
So I ignored ya, I moved forward
Yeah, I put you in your place
But the second I see your face

You give me the same
Same old feeling
No matter how long it's been
Oh you really know how to get this heart of mine
Beating
You're giving me the same
The same old feeling

Well, you persisted, but I insisted
I don't feel it like before
But we both know that I'm lying
And that I couldn't love you more
These emotions are like explosions
I'm trying so hard to ignore
But the second you walk through my door

Well, you give me the same
The same old feeling
No matter how long it's been
Oh you really know how to get this heart of mine
Beating
You're giving me the same
The same old feeling

The same old feeling back like 2003
Same old feeling
You've got some hold on me
Same old feeling
Your eyes, they cut so deep
Same old feeling, it's true

Well, you give me the same
The same old feeling
Oh no matter how long it's been
Oh you really know how to get this heart of mine
Beating
Oh you're giving me the same
Oh you're giving me the same old

Yes, you give me the same feeling
Oh no matter how long it's been
Oh you're giving my life new meaning
You're giving me the same, same old feeling

You give me the same, same old feeling
No matter how long it's been
Oh you really know how to get this heart of mine
Beating
You're giving me the same, same old feeling
