

This Much Is True

Emeli Sandé

Can't trust the politicians
Too many channels on the television
Our children dance like they've seen it all
I went on the Internet and I got myself a thousand friends
Funny No one ever seems to call

But darling, I am
Very much in love with you
Yes, darling
At least I can
Tell you that this much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah

Am I in or out of fashion?
What really killed Michael Jackson?
And is disco really dead?
Oh I could spend a lifetime guessing
I got way too many questions
I'd rather let you know instead

That darling, I am
Very much in love with you
Yes, darling
At least I can
Tell you that this much is true, yeah
This much is true, hey
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, true

Oh this world can be so confusing
When even good men choose to lie
I don't know if I'm winning or losing
But I know that I...
That I'll be darkening

Yes darling, I am
Very much in love with you
Hey darling
At least I can
Tell you that this much is true
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, yeah
This much is true, true

I'm not a prophet, I'm no mathematician
At best I'm just guessing
I really haven't got a clue
No, I don't have all the answers for you
Just know that I adore you
And that this much is true
