

True Colours

Emeli Sandé

I got a ticket to nowhere I'm hoping it takes me somewhere I belong
My pockets are empty
Look sorry I spent it so no I can't offer you gold
But I got a heart full of diamonds I can't stop them shining
There's no blending in with the crowd
I got a heart big as ocean
Respect and devotion
I'm gonna shout it out loud

I'll let my true colours show
No they ain't perfect
But true colours glow
Oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful
You are when you let your true colours show

God's sense of humour's
A little peculiar
But you gotta laugh to survive
And sometimes it's hard
To be who you are
When love really isn't so blind
Remember there's no one quite like you
Who shines quite like you do
Baby you're a piece of art
So don't let them bite you
Do what excites you

And make sure you sing from your heart
Just go let your true colours show
No they ain't perfect but true colours glow
And oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful
You are
When you let your true colours show

Glow baby glow
Go baby go get 'em yeh
Glow baby glow
Go baby go get 'em yeh
Glow baby glow glow
Go baby go get 'em yeh
Glow baby glow
Go baby go get 'em

Go let your true colours show
No they ain't perfect
But true colours glow
Oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful
Oh look how beautiful you are
When let your true colours glow

Glow baby glow
Go baby go get 'em

Glow baby glow
Go baby go get 'em
