Untouchable

Emeli Sandé

(Verse)
I am happy, I am in love
I got there in the end
You destroyed me, it wasn't easy
To trust and start again
He's nothing like you
I guess that's why you've
Been ringing up my phone
In the evening, every weekend
When you think I'll be alone

(Pre-Chorus 1)
It's funny that you couldn't love me
When I was yours to love
You were never there to hold me
You kept me waiting up
It's a shame you couldn't see me before someone better did
Tell me what's going through your head

(Chorus)
Now I'm untouchable, all you wanna do is touch
Now it's impossible, falling back in love
Am I not the same girl that you didn't need?
Keep your hands, keep your hands off of me
I am untouchable

(Verse)
All this time that we spend arguing
We could've been making love, no more fuss and more cursing, get it?
Cus you had all my love, all my trust, you were my one and only
I never thought that it would ever come a day
When I'll be saying I'm single baby

(Pre-Chorus 2)
It's funny that you couldn't love me
When all I did was love you
You were never there to hold me
Why you won't tell the truth?
It's a shame you couldn't see me before someone better did
Tell me what's going through your head

(Chorus)
Now I'm untouchable, all you wanna do is touch
Now it's impossible, falling back in love
Am I not the same girl that you didn't need?
Keep your hands, keep your hands off of me
I am untouchable

(Bridge)
Same you, same me
Same town, same street
So why this brand new change of heart?
Why you want me suddenly?
I know, honestly
You cared for me
You just wanted back someone you know that you can't have

(Chorus)
Now I'm untouchable, all you wanna do is touch
Now it's impossible, falling back in love
Am I not the same girl that you didn't need?
Keep your hands, keep your hands off of me
I am untouchable
