

All as One

Emerald Sun

It's said
That freedom begins
Where subjugation ends
I'm no more a number
In your bloodstained hands

I had
To walk through my hell
To cross my black sea
What you thought you've killed
Is still inside of me

With a spark in the eye
With no fear to due
On strong wings of vengeance we fly
We resist, we defy
We're now aiming high
The target moves closer
To live all as one in this world

You've tried
To manipulate
My thoughts day by day
But now I'm the hunter
And you are the prey

Cause first
You've to learn to walk
Before you can run
If you pull the trigger
Don't look in the gun

With a spark in the eye
With no fear to due
On strong wings of vengeance we fly
We resist, we defy
We're now aiming high
The target moves closer
To live all as one in this world
