

Blast

Emerald Sun

Walking on the edge of light
Voices in my head ask for insight
Where do I come from?
What is the meaning of life?
What is my purpose?
And when will I arrive?

Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all internal unrest
Felt alive and strong for the first time cause of this
Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all my doubts from the past
Unchained my heart and soul and suddenly
I felt the blast

All my life I was a castaway
Steering to exponential decay
Looked for deliverance
Which was inside all along
It runs in my veins
Now I know where I belong

Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all internal unrest
Felt alive and strong for the first time cause of this
Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all my doubts from the past
Unchained my heart and soul and suddenly
I felt the blast

Don't be afraid of a change
Fear's an illusion
Open your heart and your mind
For revolution

Looked for deliverance
Which was inside all along
It runs in my veins
Now I know where I belong

Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all internal unrest
Felt alive and strong for the first time cause of this
Blast - in my chest I felt a blast
Blew away all my doubts from the past
Unchained my heart and soul and suddenly
I felt the blast
