

Raise Hell

Emerald Sun

Bloodbrothers in fate
Don't fit in conception
Living our lives our own way
Adopting no shape
Just go with our passion
Born to lead not to obey

Connected by blood
United in energy
A circle of brothers
Beyond rivalry

Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Unleash a storm of power
Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Causing waves that devour
Raise hell

Out of control
Not easy to handle
Always a thorn in their eye
We are what we are
We don't play it gentle
Insurgents until we die

With steel in our veins
We follow
Our heart's command
And spreading the sound
All over the land

Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Unleash a storm of power
Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Causing waves that devour
Raise hell

With steel in our veins
We follow
Our heart's command
And spreading the sound
All over the land

Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Unleash a storm of power
Raise hell
Here to raise hell
Causing waves that devour
Raise hell
