Devil Went Down To Georgia

Emerson Drive

The Devil went down to Georgia
He was lookin' for a soul to steal
He was in a bind 'cause he was way behind
And he was willin' to make a deal

When he came across this young man Sawin' on a fiddle and playin' it hot And the Devil jumped up on a hickory stump And said, ?Boy, let me tell you what?

?I guess you didn't know it, boy I'm a fiddle player too And if you'd care to take a dare Well, I'll make a bet with you?

?Now you play pretty good fiddle, boy
But give the Devil his due
I'll bet a fiddle of gold against your soul
'Cause I think I'm better than you?

The boy said, ?My name's Johnny
And it just might be a sin
But I'll take this bet, you're gonna regret
I'm the best that's ever been?

Johnny, rosin up your bow and play your fiddle hard Hell broke loose in Georgia and the Devil deals his cards And if you win you get this shiny fiddle made of gold And if you lose, the Devil gets your soul

The devil opened up his case And he said, ?I'll start this show? And fire flew from his fingertips As he rosined up his bow

When he pulled the bow across the strings And it made an evil hiss And a band of demons joined in And it sounded somethin' like this, here we go

When the Devil finished Johnny said, ?Well, you're pretty good, old son But sit down in that chair right there And let me show you how it's done?

Fire on the mountain, run, boys, run
The devil's in the House of the Rising Sun
Chicken in the bread pan pickin' out dough
Granny, does your dog bite? No, child, no

Well, the Devil bowed his head Because he knew that he'd been beat And he laid that golden fiddle On the ground at Johnny's feet

Johnny said, ?Devil, come on back If you ever want to try again

Well, I told you once, you son of a gun I'm the best that's ever been?

Fire on the mountain, run, boys, run
The Devil's in the House of the Rising Sun
Chicken in the bread pan pickin' out dough
Granny, does your dog bite? No, child, no
