

Biddy

Emery

Let's go!

Don't take this the wrong way
(My eyes)
We're blinded by the light
Sometimes I can't separate
(My eyes)
Falling in love or just spending the night

I gotta find my way down

This is the story when I dream
I'd write a song that you'd sing
But then I wake to insecurities
They get the best of
I want it, I want it
I want to stay up all night and hear about
Your life before I found you here

The Father, Son, and I
Decided this was fine
Let's not talk wrong or right
Don't want to start another fight

I gotta find my way down
(Let's get down!)

This is the story when I dream
I'd write a song that you'd sing
But then I wake to insecurities
They get the best of
I want it, I want it
I want to stay up all night and hear about your life before
About your life before I found you here

Careful with the words you say, some of them will have to wait (Am I a coward or a king)
I think I'm falling hard for you, but maybe it's just second base (Here in my room waiting)
Everybody's innocent, everybody's innocent (Just waiting)
Everybody's innocent

A studio on Collins street, a call I'd make and then we'd meet (With less to lose everyone told me)
The end was always there before you ever opened up your door (Cut your losses can't you see?)
Everybody's innocent, everybody's innocent
Everybody's innocent

So I'll take this pace in stride (Yeah!)
It wouldn't be the first time that I've lied
You found your place to run and hide (Yeah!)
Staring back in another's eyes

This is the story when I dream
(I'd write a song that you'd sing)
But then I wake to insecurities

(They get the best of)
I want it, I want it
I want to stay up all night and hear about
Your life before I found you here