

Said Enough

Emery

I'm not sure I love you
What a thing to say
It sounded strange in the moment
But I knew what was happening

Will I be by myself
Come on think of something else
You've fixed this before so fix it again

You said enough
You said enough

The words just come so easy
I'm scared that I won't find the bottom of this well
It never was. It never was
Supposed to be us

But maybe this proves us right for being wrong
Turned into another sad love song

And like Fred said
I've got a bad feeling about this
How small you make me feel when I can't get through to you at all
I should have seen this coming
(You didn't deserve the things
I put you through)

Nothing lasts forever maybe this was too good to be true
Sleep will come for both of us but baby
I don't want to see tomorrow

You said enough
You said enough

The words just come so easy
I'm scared that I won't find the bottom of this well
It never was. It never was
Supposed to be us

And maybe this proves us right for being wrong
Turned into another sad love song

We built this boat together
Sink or swim I'm by your side
I can't promise you forever
Let's just start, start with tonight
It's easy to live on the surface
Hold your tongue and your regrets
But I don't want to be this lonely
Anymore
I want to see the brightness back in your eyes

You said enough
You said enough

The words just come so easy
I'm scared that I won't find the bottom of this well

It never was. It never was
Supposed to be us

And maybe this proves us right for being wrong
Turned into another sad love song
