

Still Searching

Emily Ann Roberts

I know I'm a far cry from perfect
But I'm doing the best that I can
Some day these long nights alone will be worth it
When the right one discovers the woman I am

I'm still searching for answers
Still searching for reasons to believe
Still searching for ways to imagine that feeling
Still searching for someone who's still searching for someone l ike me

They say that patience is a virtue
Lord, I pray every day that it's true Waiting's hard when you really don't want to
Is there someone out there I can give my heart to?

I'm still searching for answers
Still searching for reasons to believe
Still searching for ways to imagine that feeling
Still searching for someone who's still searching for someone l
ike me
Still searching for ways to imagine that feeling
Still searching for someone who's still searching for someone l ike me
