

Tomorrow Be Now

Emily Barker

Wasn't looking for someone new
Another reason to be blue
No distractions, no excuse
Time to follow my own truth

When the curtain falls
The lights come on I know we're gone
But that's alright I'll see this through I always do
I wish somehow, tomorrow be now

But love will catch you off your guard
Let it be don't try too hard
Since you knocked upon my door
All I want is to have you more

Oh the hands of time
They move so slow they just don't know
What's on my mind well that'll be you
You changed my view
I wish somehow, tomorrow be now

Tomorrow be now

I don't know what's round the bend
I know we could be more than friends
There's no rush I'll be around
I'm so glad it's you I found
Wasn't looking for someone new
Another reason to be blue

Oh the hands of time
They move so slow they just don't know
What's on my mind well that'll be you
You changed my view
I wish somehow, tomorrow be now

Tomorrow be now
