

Half Of Me

Emily Browning

Where did you go?
Where did you go, my mystery
You left me alone
You left me to drown in misery
I can't feel no pain
I can't feel nothing but memories
So Where are you now?
Why would you want to leave me to
Go sleep in the clouds and dream still shine and down on me
And pieces underneath

Cause half of me is gone
Half of me is gone
Half of me is gone
Half of me is gone

You took my heart
You took the purest part of me
You left me alone
You made me my own worst enemy
Lost in the world
Searching for how we used to be
When you are there
When only you could carry me back to
Where we started
Before I got so brokenhearted
Before you took the best of me

Cause half of me is gone
Half of me is gone
Half of me is gone
Half of me is gone

Baby please wake up
Baby please wake up for me now
Uhhhhh Uh
Uhhhhh Uh
