

Press Pause

Emily Burns

Voice on the radio feeding me lies
I don't know how they can sleep in the night
All I hear is blah, blah, blah
And all we do is eat it up
I don't believe what I read in the news (No)
Everyone's always got opposite views (Yep)
This is an emergency
I'm praying, begging, pleading on my knees here

Can we press pause?
'Cause what the hell are we fighting for?
You know I can't take it no more
Cover up my eyes, I'm such a mess
We're all gonna fucking die if we don't press pause
Until it all blows over

And the media's rotting my brain (Yeah)
And the comments are driven by hate (Yeah)
We're all keyboard warriors
And we're all chronic worriers
Maybe I should just move to the moon
Less of the misery, plenty of room (Hooray)
'Cause this is an emergency
I'm screaming, crying, pleading on my knees here

Can we press pause?
'Cause what the hell are we fighting for? (C'mon)
You know I can't take it no more
Cover up my eyes, I'm such a mess
We're all gonna fucking die if we don't press pause
Until it all blows over

Until it all blows over (Yeah)
Yeah, until it all blows over (Yeah)
(Yeah) Until it all blows over
Until it all blows over
