

Down

Emily King

I just don't understand
This here love is compromised
Where does that leave us, when i look in - your Eyes you seem to care
Then you lead me to another place
It isn't fair, all these rules you make

I just can't stay around
With all your foolish games
It's like a miracle
I made it this far, and you say you won't keep fighting
But i know you will
It's like a cycle and still...
You keep pulling me

Down, down, down, down, down
Lower than I've ever known
Oh you tease me with a smile
Then you leave me all alone

I still wish things were good
Just like they use to be
Two friends who fell in love
Trapped in the mystery, we had so much in common
(and we) laughed at every-thing
That was long ago
Ooh you went and changed

Before we lost control, before we started to fight
Before you raised your voice
Before I left that night
And now I'm left here crying
Head up, to the sky
Trying to get back to the point when we were right
You keep pulling me

Down, down, down, down, down
Lower than I've ever known
Oh you tease me with a smile
Then you leave me all alone

Like a drop of rain
Falling through a passing wind
You keep pulling me
Down, down, down, down, down
Then we get back up again

Just one, one glimpse of happiness
And I won't have to guess if love has won
You keep pulling me down

Like a drop of rain
Falling through a passing wind
You keep pulling me
Down, down, down, down, down
Can we get back up again?
