

Go Back

Emily King

Maybe I'll win, maybe I'll never play
Maybe I'll lose, maybe I'll lead the game
Something calling, don't know where I'm going
I feel it in my veins
Had some tough breaks in this town, heaven knows
Seen some heart aches, weighed me down like a stone
Well, I licked my wounds, I got nothing to lose
I'm headed out on my own

I'll never go back
I'll never go back
You'll never change that
I'll never go back

Will I make it? Will I taste victory?
Will I give in or will I risk it on me?
All this reminiscing and wishing things were different
Has brought me down to my knees
Kiss my mother, tell her I'll be okay
Couldn't stay here, I had to find my own way
Well, there's something better, there's got to be better
I know I'm gonna find it some day

I'll never go back
I'll never go back
You'll never change that
I'll never go back

Ooh, I can't expect to find a feeling like that again
No, I won't pretend
Oh, I know there's something waiting down this road ahead
I'll find it in the end
Find it in the end

(Go back, go back, go back, go back, go back
Go back, go back, go back, go back, go back)
