

Sleepwalker

Emily King

Somethin' in the air is callin' me
Turn the light on Somethin' 'bout that night that makes you see, what you don't want
I think about it every time I sleep, there is someone Creepin' at me, swear they hauntin' me
Telling me "Run"

I feel my body
Without me again
like a sleepwalker
Getting closer to you, getting closer to you

I think I might be goin' crazy now
Someone stop me
Forgot to lock the doors to keep me in Didn't hide the key
I feel the cold air, I feel the dirt, under my toes
Somethin' tells me that I'm far away and I'm not alone

I feel my body
Without me again
like a sleepwalker
Getting closer to you
I feel my body
Without me again
like a sleepwalker
Getting closer to you, getting closer to you

Now we're alone
Whispers disturb a quite home
No one will know
No one, darling
Come close

I feel my body
Without me again
like a sleepwalker
Getting closer to you
I feel my body
Without me again
like a sleepwalker
Getting closer to you

I gotta hold ya, I gotta hold you
I gotta hold ya, I gotta hold you
I gotta hold ya, (feel my body) I gotta hold you (off without me)
I gotta hold ya, I gotta hold you (I can see you walk)
I gotta hold ya, I gotta hold you (without me again, without me again
)
I gotta hold ya, I gotta hold you (getting' closer to you)
