

Crash And Burn

Emily Kinney

I've got lots of questions but you've got me
And we've got lots of reasons to never ever leave
Oh, come and visit me where the trees grow tall
I want you to be kissing me when we both fall

So, we're gonna crash and burn
We're gonna live and learn this weekend
And I was the girl of your dreams
Now I'm the girl I'm crying when you're sleeping

Oh, I've got lots of questions when I stay up real late
I don't believe in magic, ghosts, a god, an angel, or that you'
re my soul mate
A chicken scratch of time and tasks to map our fate
You never have the answers for this life that we face

So, we're gonna crash and burn
We're gonna live and learn this weekend
And I was the girl of your dreams
But I'm always on my knees when you are sleeping

And the ground feels so hard when the fall was easy
Baby, nothing you say will ever please me
Baby, nothing you do will ever reach me
Baby, nothing you say will ever keep me
