

Lie Lie Lie

Emily Osment

Sit where you please, baby I'm coming down
Take up the warm side of the room, for now
This is where I sleep and this is what I am
You don't know anything about what I, I can do

I hope you like a liar with her eyes closed shut
I hope you like a lover with her hands drawn up
I hope you like the taste of how it feels to be wrong
'Cause you are and you don't know me at all

Walk on your way
And take all your second chances back
Learn not to say and just to do, oh you do
'Cause this world's alone
And we've closed the playground, please go home
Go on and watch your friends on the nightly news

I hope you like a liar with her eyes closed shut
I hope you like a lover with her hands drawn up
I hope you like the taste of how it feels to be wrong
'Cause you are and you don't know me at all
(You don't know me at all)

He said he really likes it when I lie, lie, lie
He said he really likes it when I lie, lie, lie
He said he really likes it when I lie, lie, lie
He said he really likes it when I lie
'Cause I could watch you lie, lie, lie
For my whole life, life, life
Lie, lie, lie
For my whole life, life

I hope you like a liar with her eyes closed shut
I hope you like a lover with her hands drawn up
I hope you like the taste of how it feels to be wrong
'Cause you are and you don't know me at all
