

Pathetic and in Love

Emily's Army

On the corner of pathetic and in love standing there with you c ant make a decision and it rips my heart in two A pictured be nice evidence but I got nothing to prove Guess I'm just a fool again but I am a fool for you

If you would take my hand maybe you could understand I'm so alone, like a car on an empty road, if you would be my g irl, then I could be your boy If by chance our cheeks should meet while dancing thats all rig ht
coz for me youre the only one tonight

On the corner of contraction and attraction whats gone wrong my mental map is fading and these streets are looking on if I got the chance I would but all the time seems wrong
I am a modern day romantic as a loser with a song
